Bio

De Martenson is experienced, dedicated and well-respected across the country. He has taken more than 250 jury trials to verdict in venues around the nation, from tiny hamlets to large urban cities. His practice continues to focus in the areas of automotive litigation, product liability, fraud, mass tort, class action and catastrophic injury claims. De also regularly serves clients on both a regional and national level as coordinating counsel in specialty claims.

With over 40 years of trial experience, De still realizes that he learns something from every trial. He also realizes that every client is unique with its own business model, litigation approach and individual needs. His trial team is able to provide a diverse defense team to properly support the litigation and serve the client's best interest.

When not involved with his law practice, De enjoys coaching AAU basketball, hunting and being involved in the lives of his two children and four grandchildren.

Mr. Martenson earned his BS from The University of Alabama (1969) and his JD from The University of Alabama School of Law (1971).
