Bio

Barry Burkett is a first-generation attorney wise beyond his years. At an early age, while growing up in Montgomery, Alabama, Barry accepted a calling to serve others as an attorney and crafted a strategic plan to obtain his career goals. Today, he brings the same drive, passion and commitment to his clients. Barry is a constant advocate for his clients and accepts their challenges as his own.

Since joining Huie in 2018, Barry focuses his law practice in the areas of automotive litigation, product liability and workers' compensation. As a law student, Barry served as an Acquisitions and Student Notes Editor for the Alabama Civil Rights & Civil Liberties Law Review and as a member of the Black Law Student Association Moot Court Team and Public Interest Student Board.

In his free time, Barry enjoys running, listening to music and spending time with family.

Barry earned his BS in Business Administration, with a minor in Business Engineering Technology, from Auburn University and his JD from The University of Alabama School of Law.
