Bio

Gordon Sproule leaves no stone unturned. From the smallest detail to the biggest arguments, Gordon looks for every advantage for his clients. Whether he is preparing and researching on his own, or working with a team, he brings unwavering professionalism and poise to every facet of a defense case.

Since 1996, Gordon has served as lead counsel garnering success in numerous high exposure product liability and nursing home jury trials. He represents automobile manufacturers and distributors in both product liability and warranty cases throughout the Southeast where he has served as lead trial and coordinating counsel in Alabama, Mississippi, South Carolina, Georgia and North Carolina. All across Alabama and Georgia, he represents nursing homes in medical malpractice and premises liability cases. His passion and concern for his clients can be seen in the many client relationships he has developed over the years. For Gordon, hard work is the only path to success and every challenge becomes another problem-solving opportunity and a chance to show his clients how far he is willing to go for them.

In his free time, Gordon enjoys spending quality time with his wife, Tracy, and supporting their two children in competitive sports and activities. Gordon and Tracy also volunteer their time to numerous charitable causes.

Gordon earned his BS from Vanderbilt University and his JD from Georgia State University College of Law.
