Bio

Tom Bazemore is a trial lawyer that litigates product liability, automotive product liability, medical malpractice, trucking and transportation, bad faith / insurance litigation, business and negligence cases. Tom brings extensive litigation experience and a proven track record to the representative process.

Since joining the firm in 1996, Tom has successfully defended clients in various trial venues at both the State and Federal Courts and in both rural and urban court systems. He has tried 41 cases to verdict. Tom is motivated by the unpredictability and problem-solving opportunities that come with practicing law. Understanding the time and effort that goes into being an efficient and effective advocate, Tom is quick to remind people that a quick fix serves no one. His commitment to creating value for clients has led to his admission to the Federation of Defense & Corporate Counsel, which is composed of recognized leaders in the legal community who have achieved professional distinction.

Tom earned his BS from The University of Alabama and his JD from Cumberland School of Law at Samford University.
