Bio

A native of Columbia, South Carolina, Cameron Rentschler hails from a family committed to helping others. He grew up serving those in need in his community. Now, as an attorney, Cameron focuses on the needs of his clients, working tirelessly to provide service excellence and the best possible outcomes. Cameron's passion for the law and his ability to relate to others and their position or viewpoint makes him an essential team member in and out of the courtroom.

In 2019, Cameron joined Huie after successfully completing the firm's summer associate program. He now focuses his full-time law practice in the areas of automotive litigation, product liability, trucking litigation and insurance defense. While in law school, Cameron was a member of the National Moot Court Team and Trial Advocacy organizations. He also served as the Ethics Opinion Editor for The Journal of the Legal Profession and was elected to the Order of the Barristers.

Away from the office, Cameron enjoys outdoor activities, including camping, hiking and fishing. He also enjoys photography, reading, traveling and watching college football.

Cameron earned his BA in Political Science and International Studies from the University of South Carolina and his JD from The University of Alabama School of Law.
